Do you have a recipe handed down from a family member? Honor your family by submitting the recipe along with a story and photo of the original cook. We can't use digital photos sent by e-mail, but we will carefully scan and return your photo so it can be included. Please be sure to identify the photos you send with both your name and the name(s) of the person pictured. Please send contributions to:

Girl Scouts reaches century mark

On March 12, 1912, Georgia resident Juliette Gordon Low phoned a distant cousin and said, "I've got something for the girls of Savannah, and all of America, and all the world, and we're going to start it tonight!"

Today the Girl Scouts of the United States of America (GSUSA) continues to empower girls through community service, camping experiences, and the teaching of other practical skills. The organization, which has nurtured more than 50 million participants, strives to build "girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place."

Girl Scouts celebrates the 100th anniversary of its founding during Girl Scout week, March 11-17. During this week, Girl Scouts of all ages celebrate by demonstrating courage, confidence, and character in ways that have real impact on their communities. Join us in celebrating our local Girl Scouts!
